
Curricular Practical Training Statement

Programs at UND encourage students to engage in curricular practical, workforce integrated learning opportunities. Students can engage in opportunities that are integral to their academic success in myriad ways, including through academic course credit. Please contact the Experiential Learning Center to be connected to an opportunity that complements your degree program.