

Leadership Minor

The minor in leadership provides in-depth instruction on desired qualities of leaders, the relationship between leaders and followers, and explores what has contributed to successful leadership in a variety of fields. The courses and experiences provide the training necessary for UND graduates to serve as leaders in their community and professions. For further information, contact the Office of Academic Advisement (<http://business.und.edu/current-students/academic-advising/>) in the Nistler College of Business and Public Administration 701.777.2975
