Survey of international business environment, with focus on elements of international marketing practices and their management. Prerequisite: MRKT 305; Sophomore, Junior or Senior Standing. F.

MRKT 327. Digital Marketing. 3 Credits.

Digital Marketing is no longer an emerging medium; customers are regularly making decisions about a product or service online- long before they see or hear any traditional communications. Effective integration is key. Digital Marketing can become overwhelming with the constant, rapid evolution of this landscape. Each new tool comes with another learning curve and new jargon, blurring useful tools with trendy, irrelevant distractions. At the same time, the accessibility and flexibility of Digital Marketing can result in higher returns on investment (ROI) and better understanding of consumers. This class in Digital Marketing will empower students to think strategically. S.

MRKT 330. Marketing Research. 3 Credits.

The research process from a marketing perspective. Addresses problem formulation, research design, methodology, and appropriate statistical methods. Application of procedures appropriate for the analysis and interpretation of marketing data. Prerequisite: MRKT 305; Sophomore, Junior or Senior Standing; declared CoBPA majors only. F,S.

MRKT 340. Integrated Marketing Communications. 3 Credits.

This course focuses on the state-of-the-art strategic concept of integrated marketing communication (IMC). IMC incorporates advertising, sales promotions, publicity, public relations, personal selling, Internet, and any other means by which marketing information is communicated to people. The course will involve a synthesis of the theoretical, practical, and social considerations of IMC. Prerequisite: MRKT 305; Junior or Senior Standing. S.

MRKT 347. Social Media. 3 Credits.

This course is an in-depth look at social networks, social media platforms and online advertising to offer students an advantage in many positions involving marketing, consulting and brand management both on the buyer and seller side of social media. Prerequisite: MRKT 305; Junior or Senior Standing. F,S.

MRKT 386. Field Experience in Marketing. 1-8 Credits.

Work or on-site opportunity to study and/or assist with marketing activities and understand the role of marketing for that company/organization (profit/nonprofit). Prerequisite: Minimum GPA of 2.5, MRKT 305, and consent of instructor. Repeatable to 8.00 credits. S/U grading. F,S,SS.

The study of the theory and practice of managing brands and products as vital corporate assets and the focus of the marketing planning process. Prerequisite: MRKT 310 and MRKT 330; Junior or Senior Standing; declared CoBPA majors only. S.

MRKT 411. Sales Management. 3 Credits.

The practice of sales management including sales force recruiting, training, organization, motivation, compensation, and evaluation. Prerequisite: MRKT 305 and MRKT 311; Junior or Senior Standing; declared CoBPA majors only. S.

MRKT 430. Customer Experience (CX) Marketing. 3 Credits.

Customer Experience (CX) focuses on relationship marketing at every step in customer/business buyer process and is now a core, strategic element of virtually all marketing. Organizations increasingly stress the importance of cooperation with customers, communities, charities, and other partners. This course focuses primarily on Customer Experience and marketing relationships from an Organization-to-Organization context. Prerequisite: MRKT 305; Junior or Senior Standing; NCoBPA majors only. S.

MRKT 431. Customer Relationship Management (CRM). 3 Credits.

This course examines customer relationship management (CRM) and its application in marketing, sales, and service. It will include the Theory of CRM and how to use tools like Salesforce to help companies align business process with customer centric strategies using people, technology, and knowledge. Companies strive to use CRM to optimize the identification, acquisition, growth and retention of desired customers to gain competitive advantage and maximize profit. Anyone interested in working with customers and CRM technology and would like to be responsible for the development of any major aspect of CRM will find this course beneficial. Emphasis is given on conceptual knowledge, real-world projects, and hands-on learning using CRM software. CRM training modules and software are used throughout the semester. Prerequisite: MRKT 305, Junior or Senior Standing. F.

MRKT 433. Negotiations for Sales and Relationship Managements. 3 Credits.
